The Star and Sentinel.

"STEVENS HALL."
Oration of the Hon. M. Russell Thayer,
OF PHILADELPHIA,
At the laying of the Corner Stone of "Stevens Hall," Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., August 8, 1868.

From the struggle of contending principles, from the conflict of hostile interests, from the war of opposing opinions—are brought forth new truths, new customs, new laws, new constitutions, new States. The eighty-five years which elapsed between the Declaration of Independence and the year 1861 present a continuous record of these contending forces.—That at some period the time should arrive when their relative strength should be tried, and when it should be forever determined whether the principle of disintegration or the principle of national unity should prevail; whether freedom should triumph or slavery endure, whether the principles of a class or the rights of the people should be victorious—was as certain as that these antagonistic principles were imbedded in the body politic.—That a result so decisive was reached at so early a period in the history of this government is attributable, in a great measure, to the aggressive nature of the false principles themselves.

When their appeal to the sword silenced the argument of words, and hostile principles and irreconcilable theories stood face to face in armed opposition, it for the first time became apparent that the compromises of the past were, by their very nature, temporary and delusive, and that upon the result of the struggle about to be joined would depend the character of the civilization and laws, which, through the long future allotted to the lives of nations, would prevail upon the continent of America.

A war was made for slavery, and behold, everywhere, from ocean to ocean, and from the gulf to the frowning forests of our northern frontier, a land untrodden by a single slave. A war was made for State sovereignty, and behold, everywhere, over this vast expanse, the triumphant symbol of national supremacy. A war was made for disunion, and behold, everywhere, indestructible unity. A war was made for aristocracy, and behold, everywhere, predominant, the elevation of labor and the power of the people. A war was made to perpetuate the most odious restrictions upon citizenship, and behold, universal suffrage an accomplished fact in the States which made the war, and an impending fact everywhere.

These are the first thoughts which naturally arise in this place and at this time, for here occurred that decisive trial of those grave issues of government in which the human race had so large a stake, and which, for the better part of a century, had been growing and ripening for a final settlement. Here, more than at any other place, were these solemn questions determined. In this grand forum of nature, with the civilized world for spectators, these opposing principles, matured in their growth and formidable in their strength, grappled for mastery in the deadly conflict. Here judgment was given between them; and on thy grassy slopes and rocky hillsides, immortal Gettysburg, liberty and union, truth and justice were born anew. On these immovable foundations behold a new republic founded, wherein are to be henceforth recognized the unity of the nation, the rights of labor, and the freedom and equality of all men.

These problems were always inherent in the elements of our condition. They were deeply planted in the colonial governments which first dispelled the barbarism of these Western shores. They broke abruptly out in the Declaration of Independence. They lurked in the Articles of Confederation. They stood confessed in the uncompromising compromises of the Constitution made to establish justice and form a more perfect Union. They were thinly covered up by the legislative bargains of 1850. Step by step, with the tread of destiny, nearer and nearer to the surface they came through the lapsing years of our brief history, until, amid the clash of arms and the roar of civil war, they stood clearly revealed to our sight, demanding recognition and solution. By devious passes, through darkened ways and bloody paths, we reached this consummation. And so, under the blessing of Divine Providence, not knowing the way we went or the end before us, conducted by the genius of our progressive liberty, like the CEdipus of Sophocles, led by beautiful and faithful Antigone, we have come at last to these peaceful seats. If, like him, any shall Inquire—

Tell me, thou daughter of a blind old man.
Antigone, to what land are we come.
Or what city?

We may reply, to a land of universal liberty and of equal laws.

It is not possible to over-estimate the magnitude or the importance of the changes which the recent convulsion has wrought in our civil condition. The conflagration which wrapped this continent in the flames of civil war, has burnt to ashes the theories and the institutions which vexed our peace and threatened us with continual dissolution. By its dazzling light the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution are to be read henceforth in their true sense—the one as a charter of universal freedom; the other as the framework of a national government. The smoke which rises from the smoldering ashes of slavery and State sovereignty, only indicates the severity of the struggle and the magnitude of the overthrow. The vital principles of the Rebellion are buried in the graves of the Rebellion. They are entombed at Gettysburg, at Appomattox Court House, and in the hundreds of battle-fields which will endure forever the historic monuments of their destruction. Freedom, the Union of the States, the Supremacy of the National Government, are no longer questions to be decided by courts or by arms. They have passed into the very substance of the government. The dangers which may await us in the future will spring from other sources.

What the result of the changes which have been effected shall be in the future depends, in a great measure, upon ourselves. The ages which are to come can alone sit in judgment upon the great experiment upon which we have entered, for they alone shall write its history. The continued existence of nations, like their growth, is dependent upon moral as well as physical laws. If the republics of antiquity decayed and perished, it was because they were unworthy to live. If the civilization of Europe was overwhelmed by the Goths it was because the civil taxation of Rome had failed to accomplish the destinies of the people she had conquered. It has been left for the ingenuity of man and the demonstrations of his experience to discover what form of government is best for his circumstances and condition. There is not a civilized country which does not now possess a better government than it did a hundred years ago. The progress of man in the elevation and improvement of his race is apparent to the student of history, not less in the improvement of government, and of the laws of his social organization than in the discoveries of science and the inventions and application of the arts.

In the degree of capacity which a nation possesses for self government; in the degree in which it has the courage and ability to apply the principles of self government, in that degree is it successful in promoting the welfare and happiness of its people. The proximity of its approach to true representative government founded upon the popular will, is the true criterion of national success and happiness. For this reason the government of England is freer and better than that of France; that of France better than that of Russia; that of Russia better than that of China. Our own institutions are founded upon the supremacy of the people, and their ability to govern themselves. To this cause, more than to any other, is attributable the growth of our power, the development of our resources, and the prosperity of all our interests. The results of our system stand forth before the world the demonstrative proof of the superiority of our institutions. The only problem of the future is our ability to continue to maintain these institutions. The principal agency in this must be the education of the people.

Our political principals do not differ more widely from those of the ancients than our system of education differs from theirs. When the Roman youth, at the age of seventeen, accompanied by his parents and friends, proceeded with much ceremony to the forum, and there, in the presence of the Prætor, assumed the toga virilis, his public education was commenced. He studied oratory; he studied poetry; he studied languages; he studied arms. There was little in that education which looked to qualifying him for general usefulness in the ordinary duties of citizenship. He lounged in the forum, the theatre, the schools of oratory and of poetry, and the fencing schools. If inflamed by a just ambition, the only avenues to distinction were through the forum or the field of Mars. The multitudinous pursuits of private life, which with us engage the attention and employ the faculties of the masses of the people, present to him no attractions and no rewards. Labor was blasted by servitude, of which it was the badge, and even commercial pursuits were regarded as unbecoming a person of any position in society.

Thus the ordinary aims in life of a Roman youth, came to be distinction in arms, distinction in the forum, or a rich marriage. This was an education the direct product of aristocratic institutions. It was partly martial, partly ornamental, partly effeminate, and altogether selfish and contracted. What better could be expected of a policy which degraded labor and encouraged idleness, which alternately fed and amused a profligate populace at the public expense, and then sent them forth to perish in wars in which they had no interest?

At the present day education has a broader scope and a higher signification. It aims at the cultivation of all the faculties, the development of the whole man, the acquisition of general knowledge, and at usefulness and skill in whatever circumstances of life its recipient may be placed. It deals not only with arms and with arts, but with science, with governments, with labor, with industry of all kinds. It is comprehensive and unselfish in its aims.

It is catholic and liberal in its spirit; it is independent and self-reliant in its effects. Its relations to the perpetuity of our political system are so clear and so close, that of the future we might say the absence of public education would mean the absence of public virtue, and the downfall of the State. The Rebellion, in the home of its origin, was a conspiracy of the crafty and the strong against the ignorant and the weak. When it encountered the educated masses of the free States it was dashed in pieces, like a wave against a rock.

Freedom and universal suffrage demand as the necessary condition of their continuance, the education of the people. One of the greatest evils to which our government is exposed is the indifference of a large part of the educated classes to the exercise of their political privileges. If it be true, as is asserted by a writer distinguished alike for his accuracy and for the breadth of his views upon these subjects, that at large elections it is a common occurrence that only 50 or 55 per cent. of the qualified voters go to the polls; that 60 and 65 per cent. show a deep interest in the question, and 75 per cent. a passionate interest, * it must be obvious that if any considerable proportion of those who do go are disqualified by ignorance from exercising the right of suffrage with intelligent discrimination, the success of representative government founded upon universal suffrage is brought into the greatest danger.—It is quite possible that under such circumstances the government might fall into hands which are incapable of conducting it.

Already has this result been experienced to a certain extent in some of our large cities.—While the calamities which would flow from such a result would probably compel a correction of the evil by arousing to action those who habitually neglect their duty, it must nevertheless be obvious that a frequent repetition of such disasters would seriously undermine the confidence of society in the stability and success of republican institutions. The tyranny of ignorant masses is the most relentless and intolerable of all despotisms. In this experience are monarchies founded. Power, in the hands of an intelligent and educated people, is like the steam hammer, invented by Nasmyth, which, while it deals with great masses of iron like putty, may be moderated with such nicety, that it will crack a nut without bruising the kernel. Power, in the hands of ignorant multitudes, is an ungovernable engine—blind, merciless, uncontrollable, irresistible.—In the education of the people, therefore, lies the only hope of a government, founded upon universal suffrage.

It is a hopeful circumstance that the people of this country are apparently fully sensible of this truth. Their systems of common schools, their readiness to submit to taxation for the support of them, their generous voluntary contributions and bequests for the purposes of general education, are sufficient evidence of this, and constitute the best guarantee for the stability of the government.

On the 1st day of June, 1860, the whole number of public schools, colleges, academies, &c., in the United States, exclusive of Maryland and the District of Columbia, was 113,000; embracing 5,417,880 pupils, and employing 148,742 teachers. The annual expense of these schools was $33,990,482. The generous American merchant, who, having spent his life in the accumulation of a princely fortune beyond the seas, has lately bestowed so large a portion of it for the promotion of education in the Southern States, deserves a marble statue in every one of them, and the thanks of all his countrymen.

In Pennsylvania the cause of common school education, although it originally encountered much prejudice and no little open hostility on account of the taxation which was a necessary incident of it, has been in successful operation for thirty years. Although the Constitution of 1790 contained an express mandate, declaring that "the Legislature shall as soon as conveniently may be provide by law for the establishment of schools throughout the State, in such manner that the poor may be taught gratis," it was not until the year 1834 that anything like a general system of education by common schools was established. A school fund had been created by the act of April 2, 1831, and on the 1st of April 1834, Governor Wolf signed the bill which for the first time secured to the people of the State the benefits of a well-digested and universal system of common schools. That act was imperfect in many of its details, but upon it was founded the whole structure of our present well-adjusted and successful system. At the succeeding session of the Legislature, a powerful effort was made to repeal the act of April 1, 1834.

That the effort was not successful was owing to the clear-sighted wisdom and the earnest patriotism of a small band of faithful men, who, regardless of threats of political proscription, determined that ignorance should no longer be a reproach to their State, and that the Constitutional guaranty of education to the poor should be kept. In the front rank, and at the head of that rank of these true and faithful representatives who saved the common schools of Pennsylvania when, at the moment they had been planted, they were assailed by all the powers of avarice and ignorance, stood

OUR COUNTY TICKET.

The candidates put in nomination by the Republican County Convention, are all so well and favorably known to the public, that it is hardly necessary to speak of them in detail. Dr. JORDY, the nominee for Assembly, is an accomplished young physician, who is making his mark in the eastern section of the county, by reason of his professional skill, general intelligence, and excellent private character. He would make a capital legislator, necessarily commanding influence in a legislative body, and could be of especial service to the county at the present time, in aiding to secure Border damages.

Mr. SHIVELY is widely known as a "first-rate fellow," and will be elected County Commissioner, if his friends do but half their duty. The Democratic leaders are afraid of his acknowledged popularity, and have already begun to direct their assaults against him specially, in hope of holding the rank and file to the support of Mr. LOTT, who has neither claims nor capacity for the position.

Mr. LOTT, the candidate for Jury Commissioner, enjoys a high reputation as a man of stern integrity, who cannot be enticed or driven by any manner of influence from a conscientious discharge of duty. His selections for the Jury box will be made intelligently, and with a reference to fitness and capacity.

Mr. SHEADS, the nominee for Treasurer, has peculiar claims upon the people of the County. He represents a family of four brothers, all of whom promptly sprang to arms at the call of their country, and entered the service of the Government as volunteers to swell the army of the Republic, when the Republic's life was threatened by armed traitors.—Two of these brothers gave their lives to the country—one being killed at the battle of Monocacy, and the other dying in camp at City Point. A third was badly wounded at Cold Harbor—while the fourth (our candidate) served in the gallant 87th, until his health broke down under the trials and exposure incident to the field, receiving an honorable discharge. It is rarely that any family presents a record of patriotic devotion equal to this. Mr. SHEADS is still in bad health, unfitted for manual labor, and needs the emoluments of the office, while his opponent is rich and has ample means.

The management of the Poor House will be much benefited by having a man like SAMUEL SHELLY in the Board. A practical Farmer, of excellent judgment prudent and economical, he would see to it that unnecessary extravagance in the administration of the Poor House Board be checked, and the taxes for its support lessened.

Capt. HUNTER, the candidate for Auditor, is an experienced Accountant—just the man needed to sit in revision of the County Accounts, which have become complicated and need overhauling by a competent Auditor. He is moreover a young man of fine character and popular manners, and gallantly served his country in Cole's Cavalry during three years, being promoted to the rank of Captain, distinguishing himself as a true and loyal soldier.

Such is the Ticket presented to the people of the County by the Republican County Convention. It ought to, and doubtless will, receive the cordial support of every loyal Unionist in the County. It deserves to be, and by proper effort can be, elected.

DEMOCRATS complain of the expense of maintaining military rule in the rebel States. Why, then, do they vote so as to delay and prevent the restoration of those States, under the laws of the Union?

ANOTHER AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.

It is intimated that the PRESIDENT is preparing a new Amnesty Proclamation. He claims the power under that clause of the Constitution which gives the President "power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the U. States, except in cases of impeachment."

This has always been held only to authorize individual pardons, and not to include the power to grant a wholesale amnesty.

In 1862, the PRESIDENT was authorized to grant an amnesty in these words:—"That the President is hereby authorized at any time hereafter by proclamation to extend to persons who may have participated in the existing rebellion in any State or part thereof, pardon and amnesty with such exceptions and at such times and on such conditions as he may deem expedient for the public welfare." This provision was repealed January last. While the bill was in the Senate a long discussion occurred on the question as to whether the repealed section conferred any power upon the President which he did not possess under the Constitution, and the best lawyers in that body maintained that it did, to wit: a power of wholesale amnesty, and that, therefore, the repeal of the section deprived him of that power, and left him nothing but the simple pardoning power expressed in the Constitution. If the President issue a new proclamation in the face of this action, it will be accepted as another indication of his determination to override the will of the people, as expressed through Congress.

P. S.—Yesterday's mails bring us the new Amnesty Proclamation, which is a sweeping, wholesale pardon of participation in the Rebellion, excepting only three classes, viz:—1st—the chief executive officers of the late Rebel Government, including the President, Vice Presiden, heads of departments, agents in foreign countries, military officers above the grade of Brigadier General, naval officers above the grade of Captain, and Governors of States; 2d—all who were guilty of treating otherwise than as lawful prisoners of war those captured during the war; 3d—all persons in civil, military or naval confinement, or legally held to bail for acts committed in behalf of the rebellion, and all persons who were in any way engaged directly or indirectly in the assassination of President Lincoln. With these few exceptions the Proclamation, so far as Presidential agency can accomplish it, restores to citizenship and power all the blood-stained unrepentant traitors, who, during the rebellion, did their best to destroy the Republic, and now are doing their best to foment difficulties in the South and impede the work of reconstruction. The animus of President Johnson, in this new movement, may be gathered from the editorials of his official organ, the National Intelligencer, which takes the ground that the Proclamation invests all those pardoned traitors with full rights of citizenship, including that of suffrage in the coming elections in the South—by which the loyal Unionists would be overborne, and the Southern States be reconstructed in the interests of treason and rebellion. Fortunately, Congress in its last explan atory Reconstruction Act, guarded against this very contingency, expressly declaring that "no person shall at any time, be entitled to be registered or to vote by reason of any Executive pardon or amnesty for any act or thing which, without such pardon of amnesty, would disqualify him from registration or voting."

This provision effectually check-mates President JOHNSON'S last move, unless he has made up his mind deliberately to override and nullify the legislation of Congress. He is in the hands of dangerous advisers, and there is no knowing where his audacity may lead him—very likely to impeachment.

IT has long been a matter of surprize that Berks and Lancaster counties should be of so decidedly opposite politics. Hon. JOHN STROHM of Lancaster, at a recent meeting, gave his theory as follows:

"He also gave a brief history of the early settlers of Berks and Lancaster counties.—During the revolution, Lancaster county was settled principally by non-combatant and non-resistant Christians. These refused to fight, but sympathized with the revolutionists, and, as they were producers, they were let off on condition of supplying our armies with provisions, &c. A great portion of the early settlers of Berks county were Hessians, captured at Red Bank. These people were made to believe that our government were oppressing them, and hence, generally arrayed themselves against it. Lancaster always gave large Federal, Whig or Republican majorities; while Berks, on the other hand, was always noted for her great Democratic victories at the polls."

THE New York World says that the Pennsylvania Democrats are making the issue upon Radical extravagance "which is yearly plunging that State still deeper into debt."

The World has not heard that, during the last year, nearly Two MILLIONS of our Public Debt have been paid, and that money is now in the Treasury for the redemption of the War Loans of 1862, 1863, 1864, and 1865, which have been called in. Interest on them is to stop September 30th, 1867. Democratic administrations created the huge public debt of Pennsylvania. Republican administrations are paying it. A Democratic administration imposed the heavy State taxes on Real Estate. A Republican administration was, by good management, able to repeal it.

GENERAL CANBY, assuming command of the Second Military District, has adopted and confirmed all orders in existence—including that for which SICKLES was removed. CANBY is, we believe, a Republican; and we shall be surprised if he conduct the affairs of his District otherwise than fairly, and justly. He was highly esteemed by Mr. STANTON. His successor in the command at Washington, Gen. EMORY, is however, open to suspicion. He is a Marylander, and was prepared to "go with his State," had it seceded. His resignation was once tendered on the theory that it would secede; but it was afterwards withdrawn.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON is preparing to try to carry the election in Pennsylvania by cramming the Philadelphia Navy Yard, Mint, and Custom House with a host of useless employees, who are to be paid out of the National Treasury for doing nothing, and who are to give all their time to the election. A lot of Philadelphia Democrats were in Washington last week, making the arrangements.

Of course, the Democratic newspapers are having an extraordinary fit of piety, at present. They always have, preceding some grand political scheme of knavery.

A COLORED DEMOCRAT RUNNING FOR CONGRESS.

In Pennsylvania, the Democrats spit upon the colored vote. In the South, Democrats count them. In Georgia, they run colored men for office.

We have before us the address of JAS. PATRICK FICKLING (colored), running as a Democratic candidate for Congress in the First district of Georgia. It is dated August 20, 1867, at Quitman, Georgia, and is published in the National Intelligencer of August 30th last. He is violently anti-Radical, and talks exactly like an old line Democrat. We extract a few passages:

"I am not ambitious for the notoriety of a candidacy for Congress, nor would I consider myself elevated to a post of honor were I elected to a seat in the present Congress; but considerations of the gravest moment to my own race, and to the country at large, impel me to the conviction that the surest remedy for radical evils is for the South to return colored representatives, in preference to strengthening the Radical vote by sending any of their white representatives at present among us. I am sufficiently posted in the political affairs of this country to know that it is utterly impossible for any white man from the excluded States, who has any claims to respectability, intelligence or statesmanship, to obtain a seat in either House of Congress. There is nothing more certain than that there can be no reconstruction under existing legislation, except on the radical basis, and by the entire radicalization of the Southern States; which, in my humble judgment, means anarchy, war, and the early destruction of the colored race on this continent. Of course ruin will result to the white race, and the whole country must suffer untold evils in the sequel of our destruction. It is, therefore, the duty of every honest man at the South, black and white, to look this question squarely in the face, and if possible avert the impending ruin. It is not improbable that colored delegates to Congress will be rejected; but it is folly to ignore, or blink the fact, that we now form a part and parcel of the political machinery of the government; and the correlative right of holding office is an inherent part of the American system, and must follow, as the night the day, the right to vote. These are the paramount attributes of citizenship in a republican government, and especially so in America. The franchise has been conferred upon my race, either as a matter of right, or for the purpose of using us as instruments to carry out the schemes of the Radical Party, and oppressing the white people of the South. I do not believe it was bestowed in love, or upon consideration of right; and the means employed to control our action verifies this conclusion.—We are expected, aye, required to consort or co-operate with three classes of persons in carrying out the reconstruction measures, and in promoting to office individuals who are tolerated by the Radicals themselves only because they are capable of doing the dirty work the less vile refuse to do. We are not permitted to heed the counsels of the wise and good of our own land, either in matters affecting our own domestic welfare or the good of the country at large, but a most nauseating feast is prepared for our digestion, and we are not only affectionately led up to the high carnival, but menacingly instructed and impertinently commanded to drain each cup to the dregs, and to swallow down all the ingredients of the Radical cauldron."

This sounds exactly like an editorial of the Philadelphia Age, or Harrisburg Patriot.

WE are flippantly told by Democratic editors, that Congress is an "illegal body." If this be so, our National debt was not legally made, and the bonds are of no actual value; the existing taxes cannot be collected; the existing pensions cannot be paid; and the bounties voted to the soldiers, cannot be paid. The National banks are a swindle, on this theory, and the stockholders own nothing, in owning the shares. If this be true, all the legislation of the past six years is usurpation, and void, for all was made by a body constituted precisely as the present Congress is. What fools these men are! Or, are they knaves?

THE Southern Democrats began their war on the Union, on the theory that each one of them was equal to five Northerners; and that, therefore, they would surely be victorious. The Northern Democrats are carrying on their war on the negro, apparently on the theory that one negro can out-vote five Democrats.—If this be not their theory, why their howl about "Negro Supremacy," when the proportion is five to one in favor of the whites? The Southern Democracy found out that one man fought about as well as another, no matter where born.—The Northern Democracy ought to know that one man's vote counts as much as another's, and no more, no matter where they were born, or what they are.

On the first page of to-day's paper, we give in full the speech of Hon. M. RUSSELL THAYER, of Philadelphia, at the laying of the Corner Stone of "STEVENS HALL." We need hardly ask for it a careful perusal by every reader. Mr. THAYER is one of the most gifted of our public men, and his speech is a noble tribute to Mr. STEVENS' life-long devotion to the cause of popular education.

THE St. Louis Times, a Democratic paper, regrets "that the night Gen. SHERIDAN rode from Winchester to Cedar Creek, some one had not shot him."—The Southern Democrats who were near SHERIDAN that night, did all they could to please their Northern allies. It is unkind in the Times to twit them for not having accomplished their anxious purpose.

IT is understood that Senators FESSENDEN and TRUMBULL have changed their opinion, and now believe that the impeachment of President JOHNSON is a necessity. Senator CAMERON is reported as holding the same view. All the indications point to the impeachment the coming winter.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has issued a Proclamation warning all persons against obstructing or hindering the faithful execution of the Constitution and the laws.

He'd better begin by honestly enforcing the Reconstruction laws.

SHERIDAN has relinquished command at New Orleans, but HANCOCK is unwilling to go there, as the yellow fever is prevailing as an epidemic. Gen. GRIMM, supposed to be a Radical, is in temporary command.

RECONSTRUCTION progresses, notwithstanding ANDREW JOHNSON'S obstructions. In Louisiana, a Convention is to be voted on in September, and Gen. POPE has ordered an election in Alabama, October 3.

Local Items.

☞ The Address delivered at the dedication of the new Hall of the G. A. R. will appear next week.

SALE OF PROPERTY.—We learn that the farm of Jacob Fidler, deceased, containing 156 acres, situated in Tyrone township, was sold last week to Mr. William Bringman, of York county, at $4,000 cash.

RED MEN'S PIC NIC.—Cayugas Tribe of Red men spent Thursday pic-nicing at Spangler's Spring. They marched out in regalia, and, headed by the Gettysburg Cornet Band, attracted much attention.—The day was very pleasantly spent.

THE ZOUAVES paraded on Saturday afternoon, in full dress uniform, attracting much attention, by reason of their soldierly appearance and excellent manœuvering.—The Company has fine material, and Capt. NORRIS has few equals as a drill officer.

OFF THE TRACK.—On Monday evening week, as the Gettysburg train reached Myers' switch, two miles beyond Oxford, the passenger and baggage cars were run off the track, by the disarrangement of the switch, breaking both of them somewhat, though no person was injured.

SCHOOLS OPENED.—The Common Schools in this place opened on the 2d inst., with a full complement of pupils, who had been rusticating for three months. The Schools will remain open for nine months, to June 1st, 1868, with a recess of a few days at Christmas.

☞ Persons in want of a good farm or country home should consult our advertising columns to-day. Many of the properties offered for sale are very desirable; and the owners have wisely consulted their own interests in selecting the columns of our widely-circulated paper for their insertion.

☞ We must crave the indulgence of our readers for a few weeks in not giving them the usual allotment of news and other matter. This is the season for real estate advertising, and, in order to accommodate our advertising friends, we are necessarily obliged to give them the preference. It will pay, however, to read the advertisements, as they show the business movements and changes taking place in the county.

POTATO ROT.—We notice that our exchanges generally complain of the appearance of the Potato Rot. We regret to learn that the rot has made its appearance in this county, especially among the early potatoes—in some cases the entire crop proving a failure. The rot is attributed to the unusual quantity of rain that has fallen this season—whether correctly or not remains to be evidenced in the gathering of the later crop.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that on the 3d inst, Mr. JOHN MUSSELMAN, son of JOSEPH MUSSELMAN, of Hamiltonban tp., while driving a horse power threshing machine, accidentally got his foot entangled in the gearing, and the ankle joint was so badly crushed as to require amputation. Dr. H. S. HUBER, of this place, was called in, who amputated the foot above the ankle, assisted by Dr. A. O. SCOTT, of Fairfield.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday last, an interesting son (aged about 6 years,) of SAMUEL G. SNEERINGER, Esq., of McSherrystown, met with a very sad accident. His father and assistants, engaged in threshing with the machine, were about quitting at noon, when the child, to get around the horses, happened to place his right hand on the still moving strap. In the twinkling of an eye, the poor little fellow was turned over in the air several times, and the arm torn from the body, both dropping some distance apart.

SEVERE STORM.—On Thursday evening last a thunder storm—or rather succession of storms—passed over this place, accompanied by an unusual amount of thunder and lightning. From 7 o'clock in the evening until after midnight, the electrical discharges were almost incessant, with heavy thundering—one peal following after another in rapid succession, resembling terrific cannonading. We learn that the lightning struck the residence of Mr. JESSE GRIEST, in Menallen township, severely shocking some four or five persons and prostrating Mr. AMMON LEAS, who, at the time, had his arm resting on a stove, along which the electric fluid seems to have passed. Mr. LEAS was insensible for about an hour and a half, but revived under proper treatment—sustaining no injury beyond a numbness of the arm and side, which continued for some days. On the same night the lightning demolished six of the telegraph poles on the Chambersburg pike, about a mile from town, as effectually as though a bomb had been exploded in each.

THE FAIR GROUNDS.—A day or so ago we walked round to the Fair Grounds, and were surprised to see the progress made in the work. The main building, 40 x 80 feet, is now ready for use—also the building for exhibition of agricultural implements, ticket offices, &c. A large force of workmen are engaged on the enclosure and sheds, which will be mostly finished this week. The intention of the managers is to raise the main building two-stories, and complete it by plastering, but this will be postponed until after the coming Fair. The management deserve much credit for the energy and public spirit manifested in their determination to make these grounds second to none in the State. They are incurring heavy obligations by reason of the large expenditures necessary to accomplish the end aimed at—relying upon the liberality of the friends of the enterprise to sustain them. The large building, when completed, can be readily converted into a Hall for public meetings, exhibitions, &c., when needed for those purposes, and will thus be a source of liberal revenue to the society. Gas should by all means be introduced into the buildings and grounds.

On Saturday last, the refreshment stands, 12 in number, were rented out at public outcry, realizing $254 25. Mr. E. H. MINNIGH got the first choice, paying $110. The others realised from $2 to $20 premium each. The stands were allotted to the following persons: E. H. Minnigh, J. M. Warner, (who takes three,) Henry Overdeer, Wm. Baker, B. F. Kepner, J. L. Holtzworth, John M. Minnigh, and Levi Mumper—all refreshment stands except the last, which will be occupied as a Daguerrian stand.

COURT DOINGS.—In our summary of the cases disposed of at the August Court, we omitted one in the Quarter Sessions, viz:

Commonwealth vs. Henry Remmers.—Charge, larceny of oats from Charles B. Polley and saw from Noah Lott. Verdict, not guilty.

An unusual number of Reports of Views in Road cases were presented, and confirmed nisi, under the rules of the Court, of which we annex an abstract—for part of which we are indebted to the courtesy of WM. MCCLEAN, Esq., viz:

The Viewers appointed under special act of the Legislature to vacate part of the State road at the intersection of Carlisle street, in this Borough, made report, vacating said road between the foot of Carlisle street and a point opposite lands of Prof. Ehrehart, and opening a new road from said point through lands of Prof. Ehrehart, Geo. W. McClellan and Joseph Wible, to North Washington street, near the College. The Report is signed by two of the viewers—Mr. Herbst, the third viewer named in the act declining to serve.

The same viewers also made report of road occasioned by the vacation of the Carlisle and Oxford road—to which report exceptions were filed.

The Executive Committee congratulate the Company on the healthy condition of its financial operations, as exhibited in the above statement. The Board, two years ago, desiring to guard against assessments, which are always expensive and prejudicial, determined to pursue the policy adopted by all reputable Insurance Companies throughout the country, and increase the Cash Premiums, reducing largely the Premium Notes. The result is, that with largely diminished liabilities, a cash surplus fund of $3,081.40 has been already accumulated, with which to meet future losses. As this Company is strictly mutual in its character, and conducted exclusively for the benefit of the policy-holders, the Committee recommend that this policy be continued, as being the safest, and, in the end, the most economical system of conducting insurance operations—leaving it to the option of property holders in the county whether or not to avail themselves of the advantages of an accumulated cash capital, for the prompt liquidation of losses by fire, without the expense and delay incident to assessments.

PRIZE SCHOLARSHIP.—Our colleague Hon. EDWARD MCPHERSON, has again donated to the School Directors of the Borough, the use of a Scholarship in Pennsylvania College, to be awarded to the best scholar in the Public Schools at the close of the current year. This is the second time Mr. MCPHERSON has placed a Scholarship under the control of the Board—the first incumbent having graduated, with honor, at the last commencement. Besides this, the Board have the control of the "Thompson Scholarship" in the same Institution, which was given out a year or two ago. We annex the correspondence, which is published by order of the Board, viz:

GETTYSBURG, August 27th, 1867.

SIR:—I have a Perpetual Scholarship in Pennsylvania College, the use of which I desire to offer, through you, to the Directors of the Public Schools of Gettysburg, to be awarded as a prize, at the close of the incoming School year, to the scholar ranking highest for attendance, good conduct, and proficiency in his studies. The youth to whom it may be adjudged, may use it for a term of four or six years, as he may prefer. In making the award, it is my wish that the Directors have reference to the pecuniary condition of the competing pupils, and that in case of equality of claim the preference be given to the one having the less means.

Very respectfully yours,
EDWARD MCPHERSON.

A. J. COVER, Esq., President of the Board of School Directors.

GETTYSBURG, Sept. 9th, 1867.

Hon. E. MCPHERSON,

Dear Sir:—We take pleasure in acknowledging the generous offer of the use of a Scholarship in Pennsylvania College, to be awarded by the Board of Directors of the Public Schools, as a prize to the scholar ranking highest for attendance, good conduct, and proficiency in his studies." The Board in accepting the trust thus imposed on them, have instructed us to tender you their thanks, and to say that the requisite notice will at once be given in the Schools, that the Prize may be awarded at the close of the current year, in accordance with the conditions prescribed in your letter.

Very respectfully yours,
A. J. COVER, President.

ELECTIONS.

Elections were held in Vermont and California last week, and in Maine on Monday.

The Republicans of Vermont, as usual, sweep the field, electing Hon. JOHN B. PAGE Governor, by a large majority in a light vote—the Democracy being nowhere. The Senate is unanimously Republican and the House nearly so.

In California, the Republicans foolishly got into a bitter quarrel of factions, running two rival candidates for Governor, and dividing on local tickets—enabling the Democracy to run in their candidate for Governor, HENRY H. HAIGHT, and probably two candidates for Congress—the Republicans saving the third. The Legislature will be Democratic giving them a U. S. Senator, instead of Conness.—The election has no practical significant, beyond evidencing the folly of Republicans permitting factious leaders to involve the party in their personal quarrels. California is good for 20,000 majority on any national issue.

Maine stands by her colors, and re-elects Gov. CHAMBERLAIN by a majority of 15,000.—Both branches of the Legislature overwhelmingly Republican. The vote was light. The liquor question entered into the contest, but not sufficient to affect the general result.

The municipal election in Wilmington, Delaware, was held last week. Joshua S. Valentine, Republican candidate, was elected Mayor by 270 majority. This is about the same majority as last year, and was entirely unexpected by the Democracy, who made great efforts, and had high hopes of electing their ticket. This result is gratifying as shewing the steadfast adherence to progressive principles prevalent in that loyal and growing city.

JUDGE SHARSWOOD denied the right and legal power of the general Government to crush the late rebellion—and was opposed to the emancipation of the slaves! Is he ready to contribute to a rescue of the "lost cause," and compel the Government to reimburse traitors for "property lost by the abolition of slavery?" This is an important question, to which all voters should demand a satisfactory answer.

HON. James A. McDougall, ex-United States Senator from California, died in Albany, N. Y., on Monday, of delirium tremens.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Bedford.

MR. J. ZIMMERMAN, of Brush Creek Valley was killed on the 2d inst., while driving a wagon, the horses running away. Mr. Z. attempted to jump off the wagon and by some means was thrown under it, and dragged, and terribly bruised and mangled and died in about six hours. He was about 60 years old.

A LARGE and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held in Bedford on the 3d inst., which was addressed by Hon. Wm. H. Koontz and Hon. E. McPherson. The Inquirer says "Mr. McPherson powerfully dwelt upon the consequences of His Accidency's "policy" if successful, and the sole hope of the country and its secure restoration existing in the patriotism of Congress. His effort was a rare treat."

Franklin.

THE Greencastle Pilot closed its sixth volume on Friday last, and appears now in an enlarged form and under a new name. It is called the Valley Echo.

MR. Daniel Tritle has disposed of his farm near Waynesboro', containing 105 acres, to David Lenger, of Antrim township, for the sum of $120 per acre.

WM. MCLELLAN, Esq., of Chambersburg, had a narrow escape from drowning on Wednesday last, while crossing the Conocheague in a buggy. The stream was swollen by recent rains, and the horse, buggy and occupants were carried down the stream. Mr. MCLELLAN saved himself by clinging to the limbs of a tree, until relieved by his son, who was with him.

THE Democracy of Franklin have nominated the following ticket, viz:—Assembly, Col. B. F. Winger, of Antrim, and John Shirey, of Perry county; Associate Judge, John Armstrong, of Chambersburg; Treasurer, Capt. Geo. W. Skinner, of Fannett; Commissioner, Wm. Shenafield, of Chambersburg; Director of the Poor, John Gillan, Jr., of St. Thomas; Jury Commissioner, Wm. Boyd, of Montgomery; Auditor, Joseph Mower, of Lurgan.

Frederick.

THE City Hotel at Frederick, has been sold to J. A. Ritter and A. G. Quynn for $19,000.

THE farm of Hon. John S. Carlise, one mile west of Frederick, 160 acres, has been sold for $25,000, to W. O. Denegre, of New Orleans.

LAST week a son, about 13 years old, of Mr. Mahlon Rhoderick, living a few miles southwest of Frederick, was amusing himself, in company with several other boys, by sliding down a straw stack, and in one of his slides came down on a cow's horn which entered his back and tore open the flesh, inflicting a painful wound several inches in length.

Lancaster.

A BARN belonging to Abraham Rohrer, near Eden, Manheim township, was struck by lightning on Wednesday evening of last week, and consumed together with its contents.

GEO. GROEZINGER, while in a somnambulistic state, walked out of a window and fell to the pavement at Vogle's tavern, in Columbia, a short time since, and was so much injured that he died in a few days afterwards.

IN Lancaster county, in 1864, Evan Mishler and P. F. Hathaway bet $200 on the "home vote" at the Presidential election. In consequence of many soldiers returning home to vote, the parties differed as to the result of the bet. The Directors of the Poor stepped in and settled the difficulty, by bringing suit for the stakes. The case was continued from term to term until last week, when a verdict was rendered in their favor for the full amount, with interest.

Philadelphia.

REV. Henry Wendt, late Superintendent of the Orphans' Home, in Germantown, last week plead guilty to two bills charging him with rape on inmates of the institution.—Some 15 or 20 girls under his care, were more or less debauched by the villian. He was sentenced to 15 years in the Penitentiary. He was a man of considerable learning, and has a wife and six children.

Washington.

HEZEKIAH EASTON, while riding out of Hagerstown at a late hour on Friday night last, was knocked from his horse, and robbed of about two hundred and forty dollars, the money having been cut from his pockets.

These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the excretories of the liver promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and cause the secretions to flow from the liver in healthy ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the Liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of heaviness and inactivity, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these Pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

New Advertisements.

SIGNIFICANT.

The new system of Advertising adopted by Geo. P Rowell & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 40 Park Row, New York, is attracting a good deal of attention.

The following extract from a speech delivered before the New York State Editorial Convention, (lately holden at Penn Yan,) by a prominent Advertising Agent of New York city, goes to show that he at least acknowledges its advantages.

From Jamestown, N. Y., Journal of Aug. 2nd, Edited by C. E. BISHOP, Chairman of Committee on ADVERTISING AGENCIES.

"Mr. Pettingill spoke in opposition to that plan from the publisher's stand point alone. He showed the publishers that by this system of contracting they were giving lower rates than they gave their own home customers or others equally as prompt and good customers; that they were selling one portion of their paper to be used to compete with and underbid the other columns; that the owner of the space thus sold could come right in and beat the publisher's prices and take his business away from him; that if the publishers, fully understanding this, still wished to continue so irregular and unbusiness-like a system he could still continue to do so, but he declined to have anything to do with it, and would not be responsible for the anxiety on the account of newspapers is uncalled for. There is not one in twenty which would not prefer to receive all their foreign patronage on this plan, when it is fully understood. It is too generally recognized as thoroughly beneficial to all parties concerned to be injured in the least by any thing which may be said against it by interested parties.

Advertisers should send for a circular giving full explanations. [Sept. 4.-1m

IF you wish to buy good and cheap Goods, call at JACOBS & BRO'S. STORE, near Myers' Hotel, in Chambersburg street, Gettysburg. They have the very best selection of goods, such as CLOTHS, CASSIMERES

Let its foundations be laid so firmly in the principles of liberty and political equality to which he has devoted the energies of a long and active life, that they can never be shaken. No more appropriate place could be selected for it than this, where, before the threshold of his old home, the power of slavery was forever broken and its hosts overthrown.

Let this new Hall be built up in the true principles of civil and religious liberty. Let the youth who shall be here instructed remember at how great a sacrifice these principles were here maintained. Let them emulate the courage, the constancy and the self-devotion which animated the souls of those who, having here resolved that death was better than dishonor, made of their bodies an invincible rampart between their country and its enemies.

Theirs is a deathless fame; a hundred successive harvests may whiten the plain; man, with his ceaseless industry, may alter the aspect of this smiling valley; the face of Nature may change; but these will encamp forever on the slopes where they fought and fell and in the shadows of the hills which trembled with the shouts of their great victory. Through all the coming time men will here resort to read and gaze upon the great deed which they here performed. From gallant, fearless Reynolds—his youthful brow crowned on this bloody field with Fame's eternal garland—down to the humblest private, who here gave his life for his country, not one shall be forgotten in the records of a grateful nation. To have fought for the Union at Gettysburg, will be, in the years to come, the patent of a true republican nobility. To them, the soldiers of this, our American Marathon, belongs, equally with those of old who devoted themselves to their country, the proud epitaph preserved in the Greek Anthology:

"There were the brave, unknowing how to yield,
Who, terrible in valor, kept the field
Against the foe, and brighter than life's breath,
Prizing their honor, met the doom of death;
Our common doom! that Greece might unyoked stand
Nor, shuddering, crouch beneath a tyrant's hand.
Such was the will of Jove; and now they rest
Peaceful enfolded in their country's breast."

NEW WORK ON SINGING.

BASSINI'S

Twenty Melodic Exercises,

IN FORM OF

SOLFEGGIOS FOR SOPRANO OR MEZZO SOPRANO VOICES,

INTENDED AS

Studies to acquire the Art of Singing.

"These exercises were composed to be used simultaneously with his system, "THE ART OF SINGING," or with any other method for the cultivation of the voice, and will take the place of CONCONE'S SOLFEGGIOS; being more melodious and better adapted for teaching.

"Some of these exercises are specially beautiful as well as useful, a mingling of the dolce of style, which secures the interest as well as the improvement of the student. The various styles developed in these exercises render them invaluable in an educational point of view, as they tend to enlarge the intelligence and the appreciation, and at the same time form the taste of the pupil. They must be studied carefully with reference to the innumerable marks of expression and forms of ornamentation. Upon the pupil's accuracy with which these are accomplished depends the actual sterling advancement of the pupil; any evasion or slurring in these respects is time and effort utterly wasted, while, on the other hand, a close and patient investigation, and a minutely faithful execution of them, will give unexpected power and facility, and open to the student the means and resources by which great artists produce their most brilliant and profound effects.—Watson's Art Journal.

SEWING MACHINES!

THE GROVER & BAKER.

THE BEST IN USE.—These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine.—They are the only Machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They are clabor, they are time, and they are money. And to their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams co., where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

Agricultural Implements.

BRINKERHOFF'S

CORN SHELLER, SEPARATOR AND CLEANER.

The undersigned would inform the Agricultural public that he has purchased from the Patentee of this extraordinary machine, the Patent Right for the County of Adams, Penn'a.

Brinkerhoff's Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner, is pronounced the best machine of the kind in this country. And in proof, it may be mentioned that the "Advisory Committee appointed to select Implements for exhibition at the Universal Exposition in Paris, in 1867, have selected this Sheller as the best in America," and at the request of J. C. Derby, U. S. Agent, a machine has been shipped to Paris for exhibition. One important feature in this machine is that it will shell ears large, small or crooked perfectly clean, and separates the cob and chaff from the Corn ready for market.

The fact may also be stated that at the great trial of Agricultural Implements, at Auburn, N. Y., in July last, under the auspices of the New York State Agricultural Society, the Brinkerhoff Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner was awarded by one of the most competent Committees as the best Corn Sheller out. They say, "We have carefully examined and thoroughly tested this machine, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Corn Sheller we ever saw." The report is signed by such men as John Stanton Gould, President N. Y. State Agricultural Society; B. P. Johnson, Secretary to same; Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Tribune; S. Edward Todd, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Times.

From among many complimentary newspaper notices, the following, from the N. Y Observer, is deemed sufficient:

"Among all the Hand Corn Shellers made in New York and Albany—and one single firm manufacturers more than 10,000 annually—not one can enter the circle with the Sheller just invented by J. Brinkerhoff, Auburn, New York. It shells, separates and cleanses, rapidly and easily, at one operation, as fast as the ears can be put in the hopper."

The undersigned is now prepared to dispose of COUNTY RIGHTS. He will have SHELLERS ready for sale in the course of a month's time.
